Confirmation Consideration:

Guided by the Spirit - February 23-24

In response to a sermon preached by Dominican Father Samuel Wilson at St. Rose Church near Springfield, nine women came forward on February 28, 1822, seeking to live the life of Dominican religious. This first American foundation of Dominican Sisters was the third of the sisterhoods established on the frontier. Angela Sansbury was chosen first superior. By 1823, the sisters were operating a school known as St. Mary Magdalen Academy, later known as St. Catharine after 1851. Serving God's People Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow

Point of Pride

It truly amazes me that a parish school our size can compete athletically with schools twice our size. I would like to thank all our coaches who provide special leadership to our student athletes. Without your leadership, direction, and teaching I am convinced we would not have the success we experience. You are truly teachers and I appreciate all that you do for the student athletes at St. Paul.

Thank you so much,

Kevin Brever

7th Grade Parents Meeting

"All 7th grade parents are asked to attend a meeting on Monday, February 25th at 7:00 p.m. in the school cafeteria. This meeting is to discuss fund raising activities for the student's 8th grade trips next year. The current 8th grade class will turn over all fund raising activities on March 1. Please make every effort to attend. If there are any questions please contact Sharon Bowling at 935-1223 or Robin Barnett at 933-5709.
